

WMU Roommate Agreement and Cleaning Schedule

Discuss expectations – listen to one another – compromise – revisit and revise

Friends/Guests: What days and how late can guests be in the room? Overnight guests must always have a roommate's consent.

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
Time:

Personal Property: What things are open to be shared and what is off limits? Note if guests can also use or must ask about something (e.g. can a guest sit on you chair or bed?).

(Roommate Name):	(Roommate Name):
Can Be Shared:	Can Be Shared:
Ask Before Using:	Ask Before Using:
Please Do Not Use:	Please Do Not Use:

Sleeping and studying:

When do you switch into quiet time so someone can sleep? Is it different for weekdays and weekends?	What activities are okay if someone is asleep (music level, talking on the phone, visitors, etc.)? What lights can be on?	In what conditions do you study best (noise level, other distractions, etc.)?

	Take Out Trash/ Recycling	Vacuum/Sweeping	Wash Dishes	Wipe Down Surfaces	Other:
Week A
Week B

Other:

Sign and Date: _____

Read online for advice about living with a roommate (see QR code). Should problems develop, talk with one another. Hall staff can be great sounding boards on how to approach one another, help facilitate the conversation, and more.