

January 17, 2019

Although there was no quorum and thus no Executive Board meeting was held, there was a lively discussion among those present of issues of interest to the APA, especially the strategic resource management budget model development project.