

Lewis M. Yost Scholarship
Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering
Western Michigan University

The Lewis M. Yost Scholarship is awarded twice annually (fall and spring semesters) to assist Mechanical Engineering students with competitive projects. Awards of up to $500 are given to individual students to support their work on projects aimed at student competitions.

Guidelines:

- Applicant must be in the Mechanical Engineering undergraduate major
- Application must designate a competitive student project (e.g. SAE, Baja, Solar car, ASME project competition, etc.) toward which the award will be applied
- The funds must be used for project-related expenses (e.g. supplies, equipment, project-related travel)
- Students can re-apply each semester as long as they are eligible
- Application Deadline: September 30th (Fall Semester) and January 31st (Spring Semester)
- Number of awards depends on the amount available each semester
