BY DR. MARK HUGO LOPEZ
Visiting Scholar and Artists Program guest

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2019
4 TO 5:30 P.M., 2028 BROWN HALL
Public reception to follow

In honor of Hispanic Heritage Month and the rollout of the new Latinx and Latin American Studies minor at WMU, the GIST program has invited Dr. Mark Hugo Lopez to speak on “The Changing Identity of Latinos in the U.S. Today”. WMU President Edward Montgomery will be introducing Dr. Lopez, an authority on the demographic and social integration of Latinos in the United States. Dr. Lopez earned a BA from the University of California, Berkeley and MA and Ph.D. degrees in economics from Princeton University. Following this training, he held academic rank at the University of Maryland Schools of Public Affairs and Public Policy. Lopez directs the Pew Research Center’s Global Migration and Demography section.
