9. Completed Research Outside of the United States 1985-2020

Title of Project: Multiple Cropping Systems in Taiwan

Tenure of Project: June - December 1985

Location of Research: Taichung and Kaohsiung Counties, Taiwan

Source of Funds: concurrent with second year Chinese at the Mandarin Center.

Research Unit in Taiwan: ROC Agricultural Yuan, Taipei.

Title of Project: Multiple Cropping Systems in Jiangsu Province, PRC

Tenure of Project: August 1986 - December 1987

Location of Research: 400 household surveys--100 each in Nantong, Nanjing, Suzhou and Huaiyin Prefectures, Jiangsu

Source of Funds: Committee on Scholarly Communication with the PRC.

Research Unit in China: Nanjing Agricultural University

Title of Project: Rural Industrialization in Kyongsangnam Province, Korea

Tenure of Project: July - August 1989

Location of Research: Seoul, Korea; Kyongsangnam Province.

Source of Funds: LSU Summer Faculty Research Stipend.

Research Unit in Korea: Geography Department, Seoul National University.

Title of Project: Farm Scale and Efficiency in Beian City, Heilongjiang

Tenure of Project: June 1990 - August 1990

Location of Research: 200 Household Surveys Beian City, Heilongjiang.

Source of Funds: American Philosophical Society / Faculty Research Travel Grant, LSU.

Research Unit in China: Northeast Agricultural University.

Title of Project: Environment and Economy in Poor Mountain Areas of China

Tenure of Project: August-December, 1991 (Field Surveys Nov.-Dec)

Location of Research: north and central Shaanxi Province (Yanan).

Source of Funds: RDI, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences--funds from Ford Foundation

Research Unit in China: Rural Development Institute, CASS

Title of Project: Environment and Economy in Poor Mountain Areas of China

Tenure of Project: January - December 1992 (Field Surveys July-August)

Location of Research: 330 household surveys in Zhongyang County, Shanxi.

Source of Funds: Rural Development Institute, CASS with FORD Foundation Funds

Research Unit in China: Rural Development Institute, CASS

Title of Project: Environment and Economy in Poor Mountain Areas of China.

Tenure of Project: January 1993 to 1996 (Field Surveys July-August)

Location of Research: 300 household surveys in Jiange County, Sichuan.

Source of Funds: Rural Development Institute, CASS--funds from Ford Foundation

Research Unit in China: Rural Development Institute, CASS

Title of Project: Resource Utilization and Agricultural development in Northern Jiangsu.

Tenure of Project: August 1995-May 1996.

Location of Research: 300 household surveys in northern Jiangsu Province

Source of Funds: Fulbright-Hays and CSCC

Research Unit in China: Nanjing Agricultural University

Title of Project: Environment and Economy in Poor Mountain Areas

Tenure of Project: June 1997 --May 1998 (Field Surveys May-June 1997)

Location of Research: <200 households/ 4 township governments in two counties in Jiangxi

Veeck

(Xushui and Dingnan Counties)

Source of Funds: Ford Foundation to Rural Development Institute, CASS, Beijing

Research Unit in China: Rural Development Institute, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Title of Project: Economy and Ecology of Abundant Forest Resource Areas

Tenure of Project: June 1999

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews in three State Forest Farms near Yichun, Heilongjiang

Source of Funds: World Wildlife Foundation to Rural Development Institute, CASS, Beijing

Research Unit in China: Rural Development Institute, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

Title of Project: Vegetable Production and Farm Chemical Use: Shijiazhuang, Hebei

Tenure of Project: June/July 2001

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews in and near Shijiazhuang, Hebei

Source of Funds: Lucia Harrison Fund

Research Unit in China: Department of Geography, Hebei Normal University, Shijiazhuang, Hebei.

Title of Project: Post-WTO Agricultural Change in China

Tenure of Project: June/July 2004

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews in and near Qingdao, Shandong

Source of Funds: Lucia Harrison Fund, Geography Department, WMU

Research Unit: Qingdao Academy of Social Sciences

Title of Project: Post-WTO Agricultural Change in Japan

Tenure of Project: April/May 2005

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews in and near Aomori, Japan

Source of Funds: Hirosaki University Research Foundation

Research Unit: Department of Agricultural Economics, Hirosaki University.

Title of Project: Post-WTO Agricultural Change in the Republic of Korea

Tenure of Project: August 2005 (as scheduled)

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews in and near Bonghwa, South Korea

Source of Funds: Lucia Harrison Fund, Geography Department, WMU

Research Unit: Sangmyong University, Seoul

Title of Project: Best Management Practices among Herders in Inner Mongolia

Tenure of Project: Summer 2006 – Spring 2008

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews, remote sensing and GIS

Source of Funds: (Multiple Sources) WMU-FRACASF, Fulbright Research Abroad, NSF

Research Unit: The Rural Development Institute, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences.

Colleagues: Charles Emerson, Li Zhou, Fawen Yu

Title of Project: Household Economics and Marketing Strategies among Herding Families in Northwestern Jilin, PRC

Tenure of Project: July 2008 and July 2010

Veeck

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews, remote sensing and GIS

Source of Funds: Lucia Harrison Fund of Geography Department, WMU

Research Unit: College of Business, Jilin University, Changchun, China.

Colleagues: Hongyan Yu, Ann M. Veeck

Title of Project: Research on Environmental Effect of Rural Household Energy Consumption in Loessal Areas of China

Tenure of Project: July 2009

Location of Research: Field Surveys and Intensive Interviews, RS and GIS in Gansu

Source of Funds: grant awarded to Professor Niu Shuwen, Lanzhou University

Research Unit: College of Natural Resources, Lanzhou University, Changchun, China.

Title of Project: “An Evaluation of the Roles of Government Policy, Market Mechanisms, and Management on Pasture Quality in Rural China

Tenure of Project: 2009-2011

Location of Research: Jilin and other provinces

Source of Funds: Ruth and Milton Scherer Fund, Geography Department, WMU
